31 HAPPY EASTER

THIS IS YOUR LAST NEWSLETTER...

...sent by mail, one copy per household address. Rising costs have hit Post 70 and we find the mailed paper copy of the Newsletter is too expensive to continue. Our website has been carrying the electronic version of the Newsletters since January 2023 and we will continue to do that. We encourage you to look for it there.

The electronic version is more up-to-date than a three-month-old paper version. We do not wish to reduce our interactions with our valued members, so if this presents a hardship to you, please let us know. You may find you like it better! Let us know what you think! Email us at Post70NH@gmail.com or call us at 603-474-2430.

QUEEN OF HEARTS

Our Wednesday Queen of Hearts game has been a great success.

The Rules can be found posted in the Canteen and also contained — along with the Game process — on our new webpage: https://post70nh.org/index.php?id=117.

A new game started on August 23 with a beginning Jackpot of $1,000 and is still running. Check the Jackpot amount weekly on our WHAT'S HAPPENING page.

Good luck to everyone!

FROM THE POST ADJUTANT

Attention, American Legion Post 70 Members: 2023 Dues are Now Overdue!

If you have not paid your 2023 Dues by the time you are reading this, your membership expired on Dec 31. Dues for 2024 are also payable now. Dues may be paid by mailing a check or money order to the Post, in person by cash, check, or money order, or online by credit card at the following website address:
www.members.mylegion.org/renew

Note: Membership cards are issued by National and take a few weeks to process. We do not have blank cards to issue here at the Post.

THANK YOU TO OUR VOLUNTEERS!

- For helping replace the flags at our local cemeteries for Veteran's Day!
- For the success of the Thanksgiving Dinner!
- For the great success of the Children's Christmas Party! Everybody went home happy!

Your time and effort make our Post GREAT! We can't do what we do without you!! HAPPY NE W YEAR!!!
